

The Goldsmiths Prize 2024 in association with the New Statesman

Entry Form

Please fill in an Entry Form for each submitted title by 22 March 2024 and send to: goldsmithsprize@gold.ac.uk or The Goldsmiths Prize, c/o Department of English & Creative Writing, Goldsmiths, University of London, New Cross, London, SE14 6NW

Book title
Author
First publication date
Can you confirm that the author is either a citizen of the United Kingdom (Great Britain and Northern Ireland) or the Republic of Ireland, or that they have been resident in the UK or the Republic of Ireland for three years prior to the date of submission for the Goldsmiths Prize 2024?
Publisher and imprint (if different)
Address
Main editor
Telephone
Email
Publicity Director
Telephone
Email
Sales contact
Telephone
Email
Is there an e-book of this title?
If yes, what is the publication date?

For each title, please send a PDF file to goldsmithsprize@gold.ac.uk and SIX copies (finished or bound proofs only*) along with a delivery note to: The Goldsmiths Prize, c/o Department of English & Creative Writing, Goldsmiths, University of London, New Cross, London, SE14 6NW. See Terms and Conditions for deadlines.

* If publishers are sending proof copies, they should ensure they are bound and accompanied by a rough cover. Publishers should send finished copies to the above address as soon as they become available, and no later than the final submission deadline of 5pm on Friday 15 June 2024.

Are you submitting a finished copy?
Are you submitting a bound proof?
If bound proofs, on what date will the finished copies be available?

I have read and agree to abide by the conditions of entry for the Prize. I undertake that should a book published by us be shortlisted for the Goldsmiths Prize 2024 or win we will comply with the relevant requirements of the Award set out in the Terms and Conditions.
Printed name and title of submitter
Submitter's telephone
Submitter's email
Date
Sign and print name of managing/publishing director	